

Get crafty!

Here are some seriously silly craft ideas on a toilet theme, which can be used as challenges for individual players, pairs or groups.

Lavatorial elegance

Present each team or player with one or more toilet rolls and some sticky tape and challenge them to produce the most imaginative/elegant/outrageous outfit in a set time. As they'll need someone other than themselves to model their costume, this challenge is probably best for pairs or groups.

On a roll

Provide each team or player with a number of toilet roll centres, scissors and sticky tape etc. Set them a creative building challenge: the tallest sculpture, the strongest bridge, the best representation of a toilet, the most life-like sculpture of your boss/group leader or a celebrity etc.

Loo-vely designs

Have a toilet paper origami competition. For inspiration, there are worrying amounts of ideas online...

Spare any loo-se change?

Make collecting pots out of loo rolls so people can collect donations at home.
