

Hold a Soggy Bottoms Bake sale

Creating a Soggy Bottoms bake sale to raise funds for Toilet Twinning is a piece of cake! We have all the ingredients you need for a coffee morning or bake sale with a toilet twist!

In your 'Bake for bogs' kit, you'll find:

Poster

A DIY poster to help you promote your Soggy Bottoms event.

Recipes

Any cake will do – but if you fancy going down the poo-themed route, you can download our recipes for poo cupcakes, brownies, or chocolate log to an unforgettable spread!

Chicken Poo Bingo

Invite people to give generously by organising a Chicken Poo Bingo sweepstake alongside your culinary creations. The idea is that you invite people to pay £2 to pick a square where they think Daisy the hen will do her business. The aim is to sell all 30 squares on the poster. You can then pull a number out of a hat, or go to Toilet Twinning's Facebook page at 1pm on World Toilet Day (19 November) to see where the 'real' Daisy decides to go....

Guess the weight of the toilet cake

You could also hold a 'Guess the weight of the toilet cake' contest to raise even more funds – if you know a talented baker willing to create a large poo emoji cupcake or a cake in the shape of a toilet!

On-the-spot Twinning

Do you think people would like to twin their toilet at home during your Soggy Bottoms bake sale? Ask us for a Make-A-Stand kit so you can create a display of certificates from which people can choose their very own Toilet Twin (in return for a £60 donation).
