

WHERE DID DAISY DO IT?

Invite people to play chicken poo bingo!

Thirty players could be encouraged to pay £2 each to put their name on a square. You'll need to pick the winning square where Daisy will do her business! Let us know if you'd like to give away a Toilet Twinning T-shirt, or perhaps buy some chocolate raisins as the prize?

To help you reveal your winning square, here are some visual aids you could cut out and put on the square. You could write the winning number on Daisy in advance and seal her in an envelope!
